

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EQITII PRESS CONFERENCE - SINGAPORE SEPTEMBER 14, 2018
THE FUTURE OF DEMOCRATIZED DATA

The new company EQITII will launch in Singapore at a press conference hosted by Tom Wheeler, Chairman of the Board for EQITII.

Chicago, Illinois, August 28, 2018 - Mike Mulica, CEO of EQITII, announced today that a press conference will be held in Singapore introducing and launching the new company EQITII and the EQITII Marketplace. Tom Wheeler, Chairman of the Board for EQITII and former FCC Chairman will host the press conference and offer a preview of EQITII. Tom Wheeler will present insights about the company and articulate how EQITII will provide an innovative, distributed and open marketplace for data rights. The EQITII Marketplace will become the future global platform to securely transact data rights over a global and independent blockchain.

The EQITII CEO, Mike Mulica and COO, Shahid Ahmed will be announcing the launch of EQITII with Tom Wheeler.

The EQITII Marketplace will offer the world a new technologically advanced crypto-platform to transact all forms of data in a private, secure and fairly compensated manner. The EQITII Marketplace will be free, establishing a new paradigm where all data producers across enterprise and consumer markets will finally have permanent and long-term control over their data.

Please join us for this exciting announcement at the Mandarin Oriental, Singapore, on September 14th at 03.00 PM. Afternoon tea and refreshments will be served.
